
Thinking
by Allan Steff, MSPE

I used to think a lot
About things unanswered.
Maybe someone knew, but I didn't.
Unanswered things that gave me joy
And some that disturbed me.
What's my dog thinking when he looks up at me?
What's on the other side of space?
Is there a God?
How can His existence be proven?
You get the picture.
Now, I just watch. And feel. Ω
